DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. The claims detail software functionality without any tangible structure, see the specification page 8, lines 8-10. As proper in the M.P.E.P. 2100, the claims are directed to non-statutory subject matter.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. Claims 9 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The cited claims contain the steps of copying only the objects of the stored module still in use by the application, downloading the current version of the stored module and overwriting the stored module with the downloaded current version of the stored module when the application requests an object of a stored module and the stored module is a current version. There is no support in the specification of the cited steps being performed when the stored module is a current version. Support is found in the specification of the steps being performed when the stored module is not a current version. Therefore, it is believed that the claim limitation was written in error and therefore request the correction, e.g. when...the stored module is not a current version, being amended into the claims.

Art Unit: 2195
